This year all original work from any year is eligible: if it has never been submitted to an HCAC judged event. Submit old favorites or create anew all are welcome. Entries in the following media will be accepted: painting, watercolor, drawing, mixed media, printmaking, ceramics, sculpture, carving, textile, glass, wood, metal work, photography. Two-dimensional work must not exceed 3ft in width & 3ft in height, and must be ready for exhibition and ready to hang by wire. We are not able to accept work that requires suspension from the ceiling. Textiles may be larger if they can be folded for display. Work to be hung must not be over 15 pounds. Three-dimensional work must not exceed 4 feet in any direction or weigh more than 100 pounds. Depending on size, they will be placed on pedestals or on the floor for display. All work must be labeled with the artist's name, title, short description, & price. The HCAC screening/registration panel will serve as the final authority on eligibility. All art is expected to be displayed throughout the length of the Fine Arts Show. Work submitted should be considered for general viewing audiences of all ages.	Sales Sales are encouraged and all works are assumed to be available for purchase unless designated "Not For Sale" (NFS). The artist is responsible for ALL details of the sale including delivery of the work to the buyer after pickup on March 23 (Note: items are to remain in the Show until March 23.) A 20% commission is to be paid to the HCAC by the artist for each sale by April 14, 2018. Commission checks should be mailed to HCAC, PO Box 624, Romney, WV 26757. Judge We are extremely pleased to have Deborah Hicks of Cumberland, Maryland as our 2019 Spring Fine Arts Show judge. Deborah's primary media is oil on canvas. She also works with enamel, ink, acrylic, oil pastel, watercolor and occasionally found objects. Deborah paints in large scale in brilliant color. Her work has achieved popular acclaim for her bold style and diverse subject matter exhibiting a range of emotion and statement. Because she is unafraid to step out of the norm to produce work of unique and unconventional style, she feels uninhibited to express herself artistically. As such she is often regarded as an "avant garde" painter. She is noted as an International Artist. Deborah has been producing and selling her art since 1970 and has shown in C. William Gilcrest Museum of Art, Arteco Gallery, Windsor Hall, Roper Gallery of Frostburg University, City Hall of Cumberland Maryland, Rocky Gap State Lodge and Resort, Center Street Gallery Cumberland, MD, Mettlearts Gallery, Mill River Gallery in Ellicott City Maryland, Foxfire Gallery, 17th Street Gallery of Virginia Beach, Virginia and has shown in the highly acclaimed Virginia Beach Boardwalk Art Show. Published in the "New Art International" of international artist 2004 - 2005 Edition and 2005 - 2006 Edition, A member of Catharine Lorillard Wolfe Art Club for Women in New York and National Association of Women Artists. http://www.dhicksart.com
